

A WAR INSIDE

I feel the weight
I feel the weight of their words
I hear them loud and strong
Echoes I must ignore
They're pulling me
Pulling me one way straight
Seducing me to give in
And play their fucking games

It's tearing me apart
Corrupting my mind
But I will not sway
And I'll overcome

A war inside
A war inside my soul
Struggling to find the truth
Avoiding all their lies
Their judgement
Their judgement may burn as hell
This pressure that I feel
Could undermine my beliefs

It's tearing me apart
Corrupting my mind
But I will not sway
And I'll overcome

This war
Must end
I won't
Fall

I won't fall (X3)

I won't fall down victim to this war
I will fight
I will fight for what's right
I will fight for the truth

PAYDAY

Call yourself a self-made man
Your wealth is built on workers' toil
At the top of the pecking order
You hold the power, You tyrannize

Count your days - they're done!
Game over - it's payday!

Enough's enough, we're fucking sick
We'll make you pay for everything
You can't escape the workers' wrath
For sure your death won't be the last

Count your days - they're done!
Game over - it's payday!

The lowest wages, countless deaths
Exploitation has gone on too long
United, we'll make you pay
Cry now, it's our revenge

It's our revenge! (X2)

There's no way out
No place to hide
The fun is over
Payday has come and you'll die!

IMMOVABLE

You tell me I'm wasting my time
You tell me this life isn't worth the effort
Take a closer, a fucking good look
I dare you to find a place like this
I dare you to build something that lasts
Our brotherhood, our sisterhood!

This thing we have
This bonds we share
Something you'll never see in your fucking life

In our heart

Undying

Soul-healing community

Hollow ambitions, the only things you care about
All based on false hopes of power
You can keep trying to convince me
I know for sure you won't succeed
You can't change what I think
You won't change what I think

You won't succeed (X3)

I am

Immovable (X4)

You won't succeed

I won't change my mind

I will remain

Immovable

Immovable (X3)

SILENCE OF OPPRESSION

Shame, nothing but shame
All I feel is shame
For this world I live into
I feel shame
Nothing seems to change
No one seems to care
Can you hear the silence of oppression?!

It's called capitalism dominion
It oppresses humans, animals, environment

Your greed

Your ignorance
Your silence

Their power

Do you fucking get it?

You can choose to live a lie
Or face the harsh reality

Look, look through different eyes
Hear the unheard screams
Dismantle their world
Built on lies
Feel the burn of grief
Smell the stench of abuse
And beat the fucking silence of oppression

No one thinks it's easy to do
It's tough and it does take much
To make a change when you're one
One in a million to cane
And you're scared of being left behind
Scared of being left alone

Beat the silence (beat the silence)
Of oppression (oppression)
Beat the silence (beat the silence)
Of oppression (oppression)

ERASED

Been selfish from the start
No one's left on your side now
You're on your own, can't you see
Where your actions have led you to?
My friend, I'm moving on my way
You know well how much I've cared
You know well how much I've tried
My patience has been tested too much this time

Sooner or later, you'll see your image in a mirror
Sooner or later, you won't like what you'll see
Sooner or later, you'll understand
Every action has a fucking consequence

And I, I can say that I'm sorry
But just, but just for the time I've thrown away
And I, I can say that I'm sorry
But just, but just for the time I've thrown away

I'm cutting ties, it takes me less than a second
You're just another stranger, another fool like many before
They say it's so hard to leave things behind
But the hardest times I've had were those with you in my life

Sooner or later, you'll see your image in a mirror
Sooner or later, you won't like what you'll see
Sooner or later, you'll understand
Every action has a fucking consequence

And I, I can say that I'm sorry
But just, but just for the time I've thrown away
And I, I will say that I'm sorry
But just for the time I've thrown away

I'm cutting ties, it takes me less than a second
You're just another stranger, another fool like many before
They say it's so hard to leave things behind
But the hardest times I've had were those with you in my life
No regrets, no tears, no sorrow, not a step back
Only the scars remain, you have been erased
